

Developing the Next Generation of Road Builders in Nova Scotia

A Project Supported through the Canada-Nova Scotia Workforce Development Agreement

Project Overview STARTING MARCH 2022

Road Building Labourer Program

(pending approval by the Department of Labour and Advanced Education)

- Nine weeks of full time training to prepare for a new career in the Road Building Industry
- Program includes Backhoe Operator training, as well as Skid Steer, Mini-Excavator, Truck with Trailer, and Compact Roller familiarization
- An introduction and overview of the Road Building Industry and the many opportunities it has in Nova Scotia
- Safety courses including: Emergency First Aid, Fall Protection, Confined Space Awareness, WHMIS, Traffic Control, Professional Driver Improvement Course
 - Introductions to materials used in the Road Building Industry such as: Asphalt, Concrete, and Aggregate
- This program is at no cost to the candidate, with a travel/accommodation allowance available

Guaranteed Employment

All candidates that successfully complete the Road Building Labourer Program will be offered a full time position with a Nova Scotia Road Builders Association member.

Questions? Contact us at 1.800.667.5455 or info@safetycollege.ca

APPLICATION DEADLINE JANUARY 14th, 2022

Developing the Next Generation of Road Builders in Nova Scotia

Application Form – DEADLINE JANUARY 14th, 2022

Course Start Date: March 2022

General Information:

Last Name: _____ First Name: _____

Address: _____ Town/City: _____

Province: _____ Postal Code: _____ Phone Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Highest Level of Education Completed: _____ Current License Class: _____

Documents Due with Submission of Application:

- Copy of driver's license (class 5 or higher)
- Driver's abstract
- Proof of double vaccination for COVID-19
- Letter of reference (can be from a case manager, previous/current employer, supervisor or colleague)

Documents Due at Start of Program:

- Class 5 driver's medical
- Proof of minimum grade 8 education

Why have you decided to apply for this program? What about the Road Building Industry interests you?

Do you have any previous experience operating trucks, heavy equipment, farm equipment, or other small equipment? If yes, please explain.

Are you able to commit to full time training (Monday to Friday) between March 2022 and May 2022? If no, please explain.

Are you able to commit to employment with a Nova Scotia Road Builders Association member once the initial training has been completed? If no, please explain.

Do you have reliable transportation to and from the college each day or are you willing to stay in the local area (accommodations provided)?

Can you be available for an interview the week of January 24th to 28th, 2022 in Masstown, NS?

This project is committed to diversity in assessing applicants for this program. We encourage you to self-declare if you are:

- Indigenous
- African-Canadian
- Newcomer to Canada/Immigrant
- Female
- Transgender
- Other (please specify) _____

Declaration

I certify that all information in this application is complete and correct and I authorize Commercial Safety College and the Nova Scotia Road Builders Association to verify any information provided as part of this application. I understand that misrepresentation, falsification of documents, or withholding of requested information regarding this application is a serious offense and may be grounds for non-admission or, after admission grounds for dismissal.

Signature _____ Date _____

Please return completed applications by email to info@safetycollege.ca or by fax to 902.662.2657